Eco Investor Forum 2009
Hilton Hotel, Sydney, 21 October 2009

Australia's Biggest Gathering of Leading Cleantech Companies

Background:

Eco Investor Forum brings together Australia's leading environmental companies, investors, advisers and entrepreneurs. It presents the leading listed and unlisted companies and funds across the environmental investment and risk/ return spectrums:

- Established ASX 300 companies,
- Emerging companies with sales and profits,
- Micro cap companies with innovative technologies,
- Unlisted companies that are innovative and investment ready, and
- Australian and international environmental equities funds.

Who Should Attend:

The Forum is for everyone with an interest in seeing Australia develop a strong environmental investment sector. It will benefit:

- High net worth investors who manage their own share portfolio or self-managed super fund
- Institutional investors and analysts with an interest in environmental, cleantech, ethical and sustainability investments
- Financial advisers and planners
- Business and commercialization advisers
- Entrepreneurs and environmental companies
- Government officers, lawyers, accountants and other professionals

How You Will You Benefit:

Investors can hear and meet senior executives from Australia's leading environmental investment companies and fund managers, and network with other environmental investors. Companies can meet and network with environmental investors and their advisers.

Venue and Transport:

The venue is the Hilton Hotel: Rooms 3 & 4, Level 2, Hilton Hotel, 488 George St, Sydney NSW 2000. The Hilton Hotel is one of Sydney's leading conference venues and is centrally located close to Town Hall Railway Station, bus stops, and has underground parking off Pitt St. Forum delegates receive a discounted parking rate.
